Two Upsets Mark Voting

By POLITICUS

The political "expert" as well as the "man on the street" are still talking of the two political upsets in Tuesday's election — They are:

1. The unexpected strength shown by Republican John F. Baldwin, who polled more total votes than Democrat Robert Condon in their battle for our new seat in Congress.

2. The amazing upset staged by the "unknown" Harold Mutnick to win the democrat nomination for assemblyman. He decisively dumped the democrats' "official candidate," Harmon Welsh — as well as tallying more total votes than the republican nominee, Don Doyle.

First, let's talk about the congressional race, which includes Contra Costa and Solano counties. Martinez Attorney Baldwin completely stumped the experts by polling 817 more popular votes than Assemblyman Condon.

Most of the political dopesters figured that Baldwin would "probably" take the GOP nomination because of the predominant republican vote in Central Contra Costa County. This is where the grassroots movement began; where the people rose up to name a candidate when Sheriff James "No Comment" Long was all set to run for Congress.

The dopesters watched the amazing antics of the amateur "politicians" throughout our area as they spread Baldwin's gospel. They observed the women's republican groups working like bees; the numerous meetings and rallies; the parades. They knew that local people were contributing sizeable chunks of money and that professional campaigners were hired to help.

The experts watched all this — and most of them discounted this spontaneous, grassroots effort as being localized.

And Condon's own camp was caught flat-footed. A week before the election, Condon men honestly believed that he had a good chance to cop both nominations.

And the experts overlooked one thing — John Baldwin. In this first campaign he has ever entered, Baldwin has proved a tireless, patient, and extremely effective campaigner. He is serious, conscientious and apparently impresses people — note the number who voted for him.

For the first time in years, Attorney Condon faces an able speaker. And Condon was one of the ablest orators in the assembly. Condon is also considered a very bright man with "liberal ideas." He has chosen the path of labor law and Roosevelt liberalism — which is not particularly popular in this overwhelmingly Republican suburban area.

But what of November? Who will win?

Well, (long silence) it will be decided by the 6,026 republicans who Tuesday voted for Armstrong and Ferrell, and the 14,341 democrats who favored Armstrong, Ferrell, Kehrlot and McMorro. These people must decide between Baldwin and Condon.

If they vote strictly along party lines, Condon will win easily. But note — and this is most enlightening — that Baldwin polled 18,136 democrat votes — roughly 1/3 of the democrat votes cast for both men.

Now, Condon copped 10,758 GOP votes — slightly more than 1/4 of the republican votes cast for both.

Let's say, then, that Condon will take 1/4 of the 6,026 republican votes that went to Armstrong and Ferrell Baldwin pulls the rest.

Further conjecturing, figure that Baldwin will pull 1/4 of the 14,341 demo votes that went to McMorro, Armstrong, etc.

Divide, subtract and add and we get:

Condon ..... 57,003
Baldwin ..... 56,051

After sharpening his pencil and whipping his brow, old Politicus sagely summarizes:

"So this proves nothing — except that the general election in November is going to be close. Watch for increasing activity by Condon — and watch for fireworks from here on out."

That Hectic Assembly Race

Now let's look at that phenomenon of eight candidates who crossfired for the 10th Assembly district. Six are from Central Contra Costa.

In the GOP column, the results were not startling. Don Doyle, Oakland insurance man who lives in Lafayette, was picked by the smart boys to win over Wally Wohlgenuth. Don's margin was 953 votes. However, they did not figure John Nejedly to trail Wally by only 63 GOP votes.

(Incidentally, you Politicus wouldn't venture a guess on this race — he never did figure who would win.)

It was a see-saw battle between Doyle and Wohlgenuth until the last towns were counted. Orinda, Kensington Park and Brentwood gave the victory to Doyle.

Wohlgenuth, Walnut Creek and Martinez bakery owner, carried Concord, Martinez and Antioch. But John Nejedly, Walnut Creek city attorney, scored heavily in Walnut Creek.

And today on Walnut Creek's Main Street you hear comment such as: "Wally would have won if Nejedly had stayed out of the race." Then, the next fellow points out, "But Nejedly might have won, if Wally had stayed out."

And Politicus points out that King Parker Jr. and William Phelps, both Walnut Creek men, grabbed 3,658 GOP votes.

One more statistic shows Doyle stronger with a total popular vote of 9,269 — while Wohlgenuth's total was 6,965.

Mutnick the "Unknown" Upsets Welsh

Saved for the last is the major upset of the election — the democrat nomination of Harold E. Mutnick, young attorney who moved to Lafayette a year and a half ago.

Single-handed, without organized backing, Mutnick soundly trounced the democratic party's favorite son — Harmon Welsh, Port Chicago man who has been active as trustee on school boards.

Apparently Welsh was so confident of victory that he didn't make one public appearance — at least in this area. (Incidentally, he was the only candidate who failed to answer nine questions printed in the SUN.) Welsh's confidence stemmed from the fact that the democrat central committee endorsed him, along with Miller Jr., and Condon.

This was a boner by the democrat committee, as there is an unwritten law that no endorsement should be made if there is more than one democrat running for office.

Anyway, Welsh had the endorsement — and that of the CIO. He did not campaign. He considered Mutnick an unknown (which he was) and thought the nomination was in the bag.

Meanwhile, Mutnick worked very hard, picked off the A. F. of L. endorsement — and won the nomination with 2,591 votes more than Welsh.

And on the GOP ballot, Mutnick picked up 2,160 tallies. In total vote, Mutnick chalked up 9,266.

Totalling both parties, Mutnick chalked up 25 more votes than Doyle's popular vote. (9,269).

Shall we do some mathematical gymnastics to determine who will win the seat in Sacramento?

No, we'll probably end up with the conclusion that "it'll be a close race." It might be — (and to play it safe, I'll add) and it might not be.

Doyle, personable, intelligent, energetic, ran the best campaign for assemblyman. He had the most funds, the best organization, and sound professional advice that is so helpful.

Doyle was third in the democrat column — and interesting to note, was able to pick off some union endorsements — even as a Republican.

Mutnick goes into the finals as an underdog again — without funds, organization, advice, etc. But the grapevine says he may pick up some valuable support from one of the stronger unsuccessful assembly candidates. This will bear watching.

Ask Access Lane To Business Area

C of C Acts as Freeway Plans Near Completion

With state plans for "Operation Crossroads" apparently only a few weeks from completion, the Orinda Chamber of Commerce yesterday decided to ask for a primary access to the Crossroads business district — which reportedly is not included in the present plans.

Extensive discussion served to emphasize that the chamber members strongly favor a right-turn lane paralleling the eastbound portion of the projected Crossroads Freeway "interchange."

SUCH A LANE, jogging into a frontal road which would lead into the Moraga Highway area, would, it was felt, provide additional access to that area; the one turn-off reportedly being planned by state engineers to go toward Oak Springs.

Ramsay Underwood told the chamber members, at their luncheon meeting at Casa Orinda, that he had recently written to Albert E. Simmons, assistant district engineer for the State Division of Highways, expressing the desire of local businessmen for a frontal road with a fence separating it from the through traffic.

Underwood reported he had asked Simmons if the plans for the Crossroads area could be sent to the chamber when completed, at the same time they were submitted by the state to the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors.

In a subsequent phone conversation, Simmons told Underwood that he could not send the plans over as requested, but that he would be glad to bring them over and discuss them with the chamber when they are completed. This, he estimated, would probably be in a few weeks.

As to the frontal road, Underwood said Simmons told him that no such plans were being made.

MAIN CONTENTION of the chamber is that, without provision for a frontal road, access to the Crossroads business district would be hampered. The Oak Springs turnoff would be the only one.

Access toward the Village would be provided by means of various grade separations, it is reported.

Chamber members agreed to seek joint discussion with the county regarding the Crossroads plans.

The meeting was the first one conducted by Walt Friberg as new president of the chamber. He succeeds Underwood.

Other business at the meeting included: 1.—DISCUSSION about the "Camino Pablo" signs on Orinda Highway. It was mentioned that the road is called various names — San Pablo Dam Road, Camino Pablo, Orinda Highway.

An effort will be made to find out the reason for "Camino Pablo" and to get the county to designate

4 Hurt in Area Auto Accidents Over Holiday

Four persons received minor injuries in two auto accidents in the Lafayette-Orinda area for the period from Memorial Day through yesterday morning, according to the California Highway Patrol.

This comparatively light "score" jibed with countywide achievement of keeping auto accidents resulting in injuries down to 12 over the three-day holiday weekend, with 19 persons injured and no fatalities.

The accidents reported for this area since Memorial Day were:

FRIDAY, MAY 30, 3:10 p.m., Mt. Diablo Boulevard, two miles west of Orinda Crossroads. Driver Neil Joseph Leary, 20, San Francisco, westbound, apparently lost control of the car and stopped suddenly, with the result that passenger Frank Erwin, 30, Fresno, was thrown from the Ford convertible to the pavement.

Erwin was given emergency treatment at the County Hospital in Martinez for "road burns" and laceration of the scalp, and was then released.

SATURDAY, MAY 31, 5:30 p.m., Mt. Diablo Boulevard, east of Upper Happy Valley Road, Lafayette. Head-on collision between cars driven by Angus Loop Jr., 28, San Francisco, westbound, and William Gray, 39, Concord, eastbound. Injured were the drivers and Mabel Batey, 59, Berkeley, a passenger in the Loop vehicle.

All three were taken to Concord Community Hospital, where they were released after being given emergency treatment.

Moraga Highway Plant Mix Cover O.K.'d by County

A $4000 project of plant mix "blanketing" of Moraga Highway in the Crossroads vicinity was okayed by the Board of Supervisors Wednesday.

The county board approved the necessary work order and directed Road Commissioner Victor Sauer to have a plant mix blanket placed over the existing surface of Moraga Highway through the Crossroads business area.

Complaints about bad chuckholes there have been frequent during recent months. Sauer, who became road commissioner a couple of months ago, has stated that thorough work and not superficial resurfacing, is to be the policy of his department.

The supervisors also approved plans of Sauer for reconstructing a portion of Camino Sobrante and all of La Espiral — 3.86 miles, all told. July 1, 3 p.m., was set for the opening of bids.

Teachers Accept Pay-Boost Offer

Acceptance by the Orinda Teachers Organization of the latest salary-schedule offer by the Orinda School Board was reported at Monday night's board meeting. The agreed-upon salary schedule makes the starting salary $3500 a year, instead of $3400, which the board offered last month.

Starting salary of $3500 had originally been requested by the teachers, who had also asked certain yearly increments based on the units of post-graduate university credit.

AT A SPECIAL meeting with the teachers' representatives May 26, the board upped its offer to the $3500 base figure. The teachers had asked increases—depending on the amount of post-graduate work accomplished—of $120, $140, $160 and $180. The board countered with $120, $135, $150 and $165.

Superintendent of Schools Joseph L. Sheaff told the trustees this week that the board offer has been enthusiastically accepted by the teachers. Trustees pointed out that they wished to attract good teachers, and that they wanted to make those on the staff satisfied. Increased state apportionments next school year influenced their latest decision, they said.

STATE PAYMENT per unit of average daily attendance is being increased from $148 to $153, and a new state law allows a school district to anticipate growth and to apply resultant state sums to teachers' salaries.

The board pointed out that for the school year now ending, $133,140 has been paid in salary to 35 teachers—an average of $3804 per teacher. In 1952-53, it is estimated that $166,620 will be paid to 41 anticipated teachers—an average of $4064 per teacher, or an average increase of $260 per teacher.

No Progress in Negotiations for 4th School Site

Negotiations without headway were reported to the Orinda School Board Monday night, in connection with efforts to obtain a 12-acre parcel in the Moraga Del Rey sector for a fourth grammar school.

Board President Edgar Stewart stated that negotiations with the Moraga Company had been proceeding but that no progress had been made. Perspective of the board is to build a school there some time after the third school, now under construction in Sleepy Hollow, has been in operation.

The site sought is to the west of Moraga Highway, where it is intersected by Don Gabriel Way and El Camino Moraga. It is slightly north of the Orinda high school site recently acquired by the Acalanes High School District.

Orinda Roundup Time—Tomorrow, And Sunday, Too

All roads lead to "Orinda Roundup" tomorrow and Sunday, when crowds of fun-bound residents of the Bay Area will converge upon St. Mary's College to participate in the varied activities that will make "Roundup" one of the most colorful events ever scheduled in Central Contra Costa County.

"Fun for Everyone" is the slogan of the two-day affair, to be highlighted by activities of appeal to all age groups, be it small fry competing for the "Master and Miss Roundup" crowns, teen-agers hurrying to the outdoor dance or the older generation casting off the cares of the workaday world by relaxing in the manner of the Spanish Dons following spring roundup. (See program on second front page.)

THERE WILL BE no admission charge to the beautiful college campus. Festivities are slated to begin at noon tomorrow, when the colorful caravan of cars, horses and surprise entries, led by Queen Sherill Fitch, and Rev. David Harrington, pastor of Santa Maria Church, will reach the Roundup site and participate in opening ceremonies.

ACTIVITIES WILL continue through Sunday night, the climax being reached with the awarding of a 1952 automobile, two round-trip tickets to Mexico City and expenses, and a huge freezer filled with food.

"It's Roundup Time in Orinda," says Rudy Rasmussen, general chairman, "and time for every resident of this area to relax and enjoy himself. There's fun to be had—so come and get it!"

Friberg Becomes Lion President at Joint Installation

Joint installation ceremonies were held Wednesday night by the Orinda, Lafayette and Danville Lions Clubs at Diablo Country Club.

The installation was conducted by Charles Pracy, incoming district governor of the Lions, and Jim Ulrich, retiring zone chairman.

The following officers were installed for the coming year for the Orinda Lions: President, Walter Friberg; first vice-president, Kenneth Courtwright; second vice-president, Bart McMahon; third vice-president, Joe Navone; secretary, Jack Cooper; treasurer, Jim Lucas; lion tamer, Jack Thies; tail twister, Tom Paul; directors, Nathan Gray and Rudy Rasmussen.

Next stated meeting of the Orinda Lions Club will be June 17, and will be held with Boy Scout Troop 207 at Orinda Community Church.

Voters Flock to Polls to Shatter Primary Election Voting Records

By BRUCE POLICH

Voters throughout Contra Costa County shattered all previous primary election voting records Tuesday when they turned out by the thousands to put the finishing touches on hotly contested campaigns throughout the area.

More than 80,000 of the 138,116 registered Contra Costa voters flocked to the polls to cast ballots in the presidential delegation elections.

Gov. Earl Warren's delegation garnered an almost six-to-one margin over the Wendell ticket when final tabulation of county votes was made.

On the democratic side of the ledger, county voters gave the Senator Estes Kefauver delegation a decisive victory over the Edmund G. Brown delegation.

Following a statewide trend, Contra Costa voters from both major political parties gave U. S. Senator William F. Knowland their nomination.

In the Sixth Congressional District, John F. Baldwin, Martinez attorney, topped his opponent, Robert L. Condon, by 817 in the popular vote.

Condon won the Democratic nomination thereby setting the stage for a knock-down battle between the two men in the November general election.

In what was probably the hottest campaign in the county, and one that included many candidates from the Walnut Creek Area, the 10th Assembly District race ended with GOP Candidate Donald D. Doyle and Democrat Harold E. Mutnick winning the voters' bid.

The two men, Doyle an insurance agent and Mutnick an attorney, are both residents of Lafayette. They will be faced with a general election run-off in November.

The Assembly race was marked with the fact that eight of the candidates crossfired and resolved itself into a see-saw battle throughout the election.

On the Republican side, Doyle and Walnut Creek merchant O. J. Wohlgenuth waged a heavy battle for the nomination, with Doyle pulling ahead on the basis of the Orinda, Kensington Park and the Brentwood vote.

Wohlgenuth ended up second in the GOP Assembly race and fourth on the Democratic side. He carried Martinez, Concord and Antioch on the GOP side, but was closely followed by Walnut Creek City Attorney John Nejedly who polled 4,592 votes as he took his home precincts.

Mutnick topped the Democratic

Weather—Happy Medium: Not Too Hot or Too Cold

Even the Weatherman likes to strike a happy medium. Or at least that's what this week's weather report would lead you to believe.

For the week of May 29 through Wednesday, the hottest maximum temperature reported was but 84 degrees, while the lowest temperature was 44.

And for the entire week, there wasn't any need for umbrellas, rubbers or raincoats. No rain, hurricane or tornadoes were reported.

Frank Delos in Home Accident

Frank Delos of 32 Valley View Drive is now in Peralta Hospital, Oakland, as the result of falling from a ladder at his home Monday night.

Delos reportedly broke his right hip and right arm, but a nurse at the hospital stated yesterday he is "getting along fine."

Dr. W. M. Caygill has been treating Delos.

Rotary Continues Fellowship Theme

A continuation of the fellowship theme, begun at its last meeting, was carried out by Orinda Rotary Club at its Wednesday luncheon meeting at the Willows.

Jack Buchter and Jim Wasley gave short talks to "round-off" the program.

It was announced that the annual "demotion ceremony" will be held Friday, June 27, 7 p.m., at Planters Dock, Lafayette. This is when the new officers "take over."

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

BROWNIE TROOP 86 from Orinda School "flew up" in ceremonies May 29. On the off chance that you don't know what flying up means, it is the metamorphic process whereby the cocoon Brownie bursts wide open the chrysalis and becomes a full-fledged butterfly Girl Scout — complete with hat and tie.

Being of conservative bent, the mothers of troop 86 beat the cocoons down on this new dress business because cocoons grow so fast in the summer — hence the new hat and tie only.

The ceremony was impressive and the moppets were solemn about the whole thing until the advent of the five-dollar cake (the size of a table top, with the Girl Scout emblem done in green frosting) and that wonderful ginger ale and green sherbet punch ladled out of sterling and crystal instead of the customary bottles and straws. There was a 100 per cent turnout of proud mothers, who balanced themselves on the window sills to watch the following young women make the change from Brownie to Scout.

Kathy Shurtliff, Carolyn Galatin, Nancy Richards, Judy Murphy, Katie Baker, Sally Spott, Frances Kyle, Luzanne Lang, Lolita Boysen, Carolyn Schuler, Sylvia Bolman, Nancy Grah, Joan Robinson, Marcia Nicolet and Debbie Smith.

QUESTION AND ANSWER DEPARTMENT: So many people asked questions about the houses on the Orinda Branch House Tour that we decided to do what we could about them.

First, the Walter Boyssens' Provincial manor house:

Can you swim in the lake? — no, but it is stocked with fish; and practically every child in Orinda who receives a duckling for Easter moves it onto the Boyssens' lake after a certain length of time (probably after mother has tripped over it for the third time).

Who did the decorating in the home? — Laurette Lacey Ross, A.I.D., from Berkeley.

What makes the parquet floor in the family room so resilient for dancing? — a layer of cork under the hardwood.

How many furnaces are there and how many B.T.U.'s per furnace? — well, we cornered Irwin Johnson, the architect who turned up just in time for that one — three furnaces, and as far as the B.T.U.'s are concerned, we can't even add up the grocery bill, much less the B.T.U.'s.

At harvest, the Mark Noble home — WHO did the flower arrangements? — they were "out of this world" (never heard that expression used so much before). Well, Mrs. Noble herself is the one who knows how to talk to flowers and get what she wants from them.

What is the vine in the patio? — giant white clematis.

Who chose her shade of green for the paint on the house? — Mrs. Noble was wearing the dress, on the day of the Tour, which she gave to the painter to match (a la Mrs. Blandine with her piece of thread and country butter); as soon as Mrs. Noble had walked away, the painter said to his helper, "Get me a gallon of yellow and a gallon of green, Joe," and proceeded.

And now the Frank Houses' House: what is the situation on those trick light switches? — it is called the Push Button System and is noiseless and practically unnoticeable because they are flush with the wall.

Intriguing sidelight — prior to building, Mrs. House was visiting a friend with the Push Button System and she leaned against the living room wall and all the lights went on — the performance so fascinated them they ever find that magnificent lot? — Orinda friends wanted them to move over here from Berkeley, and their son, in his roaming jaunts over the hills, spotted that spot and harassed the Houses until they came out to look at it — from there on it was a cinch.

What kind of grass in the patio? — Kentucky Blue, as suggested by Thomas Church, who planned their shrubbery.

What kind of marble and wood paneling in the living room? — Italian Loroedo marble and walnut paneling.

Grand finale on the House Tour — Several men turned up, to our complete amazement, but after all, why not? — they live in houses, too — and, as one housewife said to another, "Wish to goodness I'd brought my husband along to see what CAN be done if he would just get AT it."

MEMORIAL DAY — The wind blew, the sun came out and the sun went back in again, but the swimming crowd at Orinda Country Club turned up for the opening anyway.

Those with their clothes on who had forgotten from last year that the lawn is always damp hurriedly sat down and hurriedly got right up again with bewildered expressions on their faces — the teen agers in the teenagers' corner looking much paler than they will in a couple of weeks — a contingent from the Daphne Branch (Acalanes, Children's Hospital) making paper doo-dads that turn out to look like stars for their forthcoming Starlight Waltz.

The two small boys who were trying a third small bay up in an outside bath towel (just why are small boys permitted at swimming pools?), mothers of little ones jumping up in the middle of a good story to lurch into the baby pool to fish out something or other by the seat of the pants; Mr. Calles with his Lat hula skimmer and us with our alarm clock and lasso; and if any one has a better idea on how to get kids out of the water before they turn blue, would you be so kind as to let us know?

LUCKY, LUCKY PARENTS, TEACHERS and sponsors of Orinda's extra-artistic children. On Wednesday they were all invited to the interesting home of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Buehler (you know, the one off of Glorietta Boulevard, designed by Frank Lloyd Wright, which we all watched during construction with such enthusiasm and interest).

The Orinda Children's Art Center, under the guidance of Mrs. Jack Fraser, has exposed much previously unsuspected talent through the mediums of water colors, poster paint, oils, pastels and pen and ink. The children's work was on exhibit, and Mrs. George Clifford was in charge of exhibits, Mrs. Ray Devin, arrangements; Mrs. Julian Unruh, refreshments, and Mrs. Paul Pollackek, decorations.

OFF FOR THE BUSHES — The Ritchie Smiths, plus dogs, plus children, plus bags and baggage, plus one smoked turkey from the new Chinese oven, all in one station wagon, off for the weekend at their summer cottage.

And on Tuesday next a bridge luncheon, to be given by Poplar Branch at the home of Mrs. Valentine Brookes on Sycamore Road.

Some 200 people will be milling around enjoying the Brookes' lovely patio. Luncheon will be under the guidance of Mrs. Robert Pedder. Summer flower decorations will be by Mrs. Robert Clough. Mrs. Robert Moorhead is in charge of the party, which is being handled by the Orinda members, and Mrs. George Goerl is in charge of properties.

There are a few tickets left, as of this writing, so if you would like to go, contact any member of Poplar Branch or call Mrs. Moorhead at Orinda 8077 — and don't blame us if they are all gone by the time you get to it.

WHO WAS THE LADY SEEN THUMBING a ride last Saturday on Camino Sobrante?

This is pretty cute — Mrs. James Sharp became so preoccupied with the golf matches that she absent mindedly wandered away from her car parked in the Village and trailed the golfers' gallery back to the clubhouse. Then the question was how to get back to her car — but of course — the time honored custom of ride-thumbing!

Obviously, she wasn't there for long, but let us cause no traffic jams on Camino Sobrante, because Mrs. Sharp doesn't do that sort of thing often.

WELL, HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO US! We have been at it a year. We fished around in the desk drawer trying to find copies of our earliest columns but evidently were not sufficiently impressed with ourselves at the time to keep them. However, if memory serves us right, it was just about the first week in June, one year ago, that we started writing about The Happy Country Folk.

The whole performance has been a most edifying one. If, perchance, you don't know how the newspaper functions in these matters, it will interest you that the Orinda Mother's Club, the Women's Guild of the Orinda Community Church and the Children's Hospital receive a given sum per inch for news sent in. In such fashion Mr. Silverman, your publisher, dishes out a double-barreled benefit: we deliver the goods and he delivers the good.

Must admit that in the beginning the whole idea scared the day-lights out of us but by now we are so crass that we track down any good story without one qualm. We have had a fabulous lesson in geography, writing about trips — have gotten a few nifty recipes writing about dinner parties — have learned from writing about other kids' parties that our kids aren't the only kids in town who eat like horses — have learned that the Children's Hospital commands a great deal of respect because when we tell people we want news for that cause they tell us ALL.

Have learned that people are most generous and cooperative when it comes to helping us put on this column, because every one wants to help small children who need help. Even our family is beginning to register a vague interest in the column and pops up with an occasional newsy bit — some of it definitely not printable, but we do the best we can with it.

Essay Contest

Orinda Lions Club for the past five years has given a "Scholarship Award" each year to outstanding grammar school graduates here. This year, the award has been changed to an Americanism composition award.

One winner is selected from each of the two eighth grade classes. Winners this year are Elizabeth Rogers in James E. Comer's class and Marjorie Fish in Philip Lambert's class. They will be presented by Lions President Walter Friberg with certificates at the graduation exercises next Friday night, June 13, and their names will be placed on a permanent plaque on display at Orinda School.

THE CONTEST works this way: Each eighth grade student writes a composition on Americanism, using the same title as in the Lions' annual speakers contest. This year the title was "Learning to Live Together."

The Lions committee picked the winner and three honorable mentions in each of the two eighth grade classes at Orinda School. (Glorietta school goes only through seventh grade now.)

HONORABLE mentions in Comer's class are Ann Clayton, Jack Lambert, Karen Rasmussen. In Lambert's class they are Doug Krotz, Judy Miner and Joe Sheaff. Kenneth Courtwright is chairman of the Lions Club committee. Serving with him are Joe Smith, who is an English teacher in Oakland; Marjorie Morrow, a university of Chicago student and daughter of Rev. Fred R. Morrow, and Ernest Paulson.

For Youth Day

"The Cathedral of All Outdoors" will be the setting for Orinda Community Church's celebration of Youth Day Sunday.

At 11 a.m. all children and youth of the Sunday school and their parents will join the congregation in honoring the young life of the church, and bring to a close the final term of the public school year. Superintendent Everett D. Howe will conduct the special service from the chapel portico, and chairs will be set for the congregation in the open quadrangle between the chapel and Fellowship Hall.

Departments and classes of the school will participate in a quick review of biblical and worship training received during the year. Mrs. A. C. Ramsey and school members are to present the "sermon" in the form of dramatic sketch depicting the adventure of Dr. Frank Laubach, "apostle to the illiterate." Junior choir members will sing the anthem under direction of Mrs. Margaret Popovich. Both sessions of the Community Church school will be consolidated for this occasion, as is usual on Youth Day. Rev. Fred Morrow is the minister.

Seafarers Meet at Meakin Home Tonight

THE ORINDA PARK Pool will be the scene on Wednesday for a swimming party and picnic for graduates given by the Orinda Mothers Club with the assistance of eighth grade mothers.

The students will leave their classes at 10 a.m. and be returned to the Orinda School at 3 p.m. Swimming and a picnic of hot dogs, cakes, salads, etc., will be given all graduates.

Mrs. Donald Krotz is in charge of the party for the Orinda Mothers Club, and eighth grade mothers assisting her include Mrs. Ben Singer, chairman, and Mesdames B. A. Gow, Harriet Richards, Charlotte Noller, Cecile Ambler and Mona Tildsey.

CLIMAX to the festivities will be the graduation dance to be held at the Orinda Community Church immediately after graduation on Friday night, from 10 to midnight. Gay decorations and special lighting effects plus refreshments have been planned by the group of mothers in charge of the final party for the graduating class of 1952.

Mrs. C. M. Fitzgerald is chairman of arrangements, and helping her are Mesdames Kay Brush, Nina Almond, Grace St. Clair and Marion Davis and Messrs. and Mesdames Tom Bacon, Andy Anderson, Hugh Reed, Paul Oakley, C. M. Fish and R. B. Miner.

New Worship Time At St. Stephen's During Summer

Family services will be held by St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Orinda beginning June 15, with down Rev. Dr. Charles Whiston officiating.

Through the summer months the new time for Sunday worship will be 8:45 a.m., due to the generosity of Orinda Community Church, which has made available to the congregation of St. Stephen's the use of its church building at this more comfortable hour.

Sunday school will meet for the last time until fall this Sunday at 10 a.m. The customary 5 p.m. service is with the greatest regret that St. Stephen's has accepted the resignation of A. L. Hemenway, who has conducted the children's services since the beginning of the Episcopal Church in Orinda.

Hemenway has graduated from the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley, and has been assigned to the Church of the Good Shepherd in San Francisco. He and his family are moving from Orinda to take up residence in the Bay city.

Adie Remains Head Of Blimp Squadron

The Bay Area's only blimp boys, headed by Commanding Officer Douglas C. Adie, 16 Beaulieu Road, were organized into a full-fledged squadron last week, as part of the community's branch of the Naval Reserve at the Oakland Naval Air Station.

As the new blimp squadron, the outfit will enjoy full status and pay as part of the nationwide Naval Air Reserve Command.

Adie also acted as commanding officer of the former group, Auxiliary Unit 876.

12-15 Club Holds Social Gathering

The 12-15 Club met May 27 at the home of Mrs. Arthur Smith of 11 El Caminito for a social gathering. Guests were Mrs. Olive Gerber and Mrs. Paul Woods. Benefit cards and refreshments were enjoyed.

A partying gift was presented their old member, Mrs. Neil Chappell, who is leaving Orinda soon for Oregon.

The club will hold a business meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Murray Groves, 25 Camino Encinas.

Local Women Aid Child's Hospital

Nearly 50 women who do volunteer work for the Children's Hospital of the East Bay were honored at a special meeting recently.

In addition to the volunteers, the meeting was attended by members of the hospital staff, the Berkeley Y.W.C.A., the Oakland Volunteer Bureau and Alta Bates Hospital.

Harold T. Norman, assistant administrator, praised the volunteers for their devotion to duty and sense of responsibility.

The following local residents give their time and effort to the hospital: Ann Baldwin and Mesdames Edwin H. Clark, A. O. Harper, Jack Sexson and D. C. Williams, of Lafayette.

Mesdames Lew Doty, F. R. Makinson, Gilbert Richards and John Sullivan of Orinda.

Canyon Callings...

THE TRADITIONAL school and community picnic will be held Thursday at Canyon picnic grove. The affair will be planned by the Canyon Women's Club. Those on the committee are Mesdames Allen Crawford, Paul Foster, Claude Seeds and James Jacobs. After lunch, the children will compete for prizes in games to be held at the school grounds.

Boys of Troop 212 danced the Virginia Reel and other square dances when they attended the party given by the Aowakiya Group of Camp Fire Girls at Canyon School recently. The youngsters also played games with prizes or consequences, and refreshments were prepared and served by the girls.

In line with the "Charm Course" they have been taking under the direction of Mrs. Robert O'Neill, the Camp Fire Girls viewed films on health education at the school recently. The films were presented by the school nurse, Miss Anderson, with Mrs. Elva Shaw, Moraga School principal, running the projector. Also present were sponsors and mothers of the girls' group.

THERE ARE SEVERAL on the sick list in Canyon this week. Mrs. Carlo Scholin has returned home from her stay in Alta Bates Hospital, where she underwent a major operation. Mrs. John Thune spent over a week in bed—the result of a virus infection. Sheila Jacobs was unable to attend the Canyon party due to an injured leg acquired on the school's teeter-totter. Little Leilani Honaker is wearing her arm in a cast—a broken bone, suffered from a fall downstairs.

The plane at Canyon school was again used by students of Mrs. Bernice Davis of Oakland for a piano recital.

'Twas a Yum-Yum Tour For Brownies' Troop

Brownie Troop 128 had a "delicious" time May 29 when it was taken on a tour of inspection and sampling through Langendorf's cookie bakery.

The girls were shown every step in making cookies, from the dough stage to the baking. With the children were their leader, Mrs. Alice Brown, and two other mothers, Mrs. Owen Jones and Mrs. William Davis.

Fathers, Sons, Daughters at Potluck Dinner

As a finale to their work on the student councils and traffic safety patrols at Orinda and Glorietta Schools, approximately 85 boys and girls and their fathers enjoyed a potluck supper at the Orinda School last night.

Frank Isola, physical education instructor for the Orinda Schools, was in charge of the program. A movie of highlights of University of California football games was shown, followed by a brief talk by Les Richter, California football star. Grag Engelhard, assistant athletic director at U. C., also gave a brief talk.

Mrs. Robert Bigler, president of the Orinda Mothers' Club, was in charge of arrangements. A committee of mothers under Mrs. David Wallace assisted in serving the food.

Many Localities Aid in Tonight's Berkeley Concert

Many Orinda and Lafayette residents are taking an active part in tonight's Berkeley Opera Association's concert being held in the Berkeley Theater at 8:15. The program is being presented to aid the Children's Hospital, according to Mrs. Charles Camp, an active member of the committee.

Among the nationally known celebrities scheduled to appear are Dorothy Wenzelskjold of the San Francisco Opera and of Standard Radio Hour fame; Ernest Lawrence, who has sung with many major eastern opera groups; Steven Kamalyn who has made several appearances in the Hollywood Bowl and Walt Herbert of the San Francisco Symphony.

Among the Orinda citizens working to make the concert a success are Dr. and Mrs. Camp, Dr. and Louise Cobb, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Doane, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Martin and Mr. and Mrs. George S. West.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey B. Lyon of Lafayette are having a dinner party for 20 people before the concert.

Lester Hink of Lafayette has been selling tickets at his department store in Berkeley.

recital held for parents and friends last Sunday. Those taking part were Billie and Jackie Chessum, Doty Shally, Claude Vandel at her home, Douglas O'Neill and Robin Owens and Linda Peterson of Berkeley.

The Harry Rices have moved to Pleasant Hill. Phyllis Rice, Canyon postmaster for the past four and a half years, will remain on the job until the end of June, at which time Mrs. Paul Foster will take over her position. For several years Phyllis wrote "Canyon Callings."

EIGHTH GRADERS will be taken to San Francisco for dinner and an evening's entertainment tomorrow by George Masker, their teacher, and Patty Lou Beers. Also, a party is being planned for the graduates at the Merle Honiker home, following the commencement exercises.

Several scout mothers from Canyon were present at a luncheon given by Mrs. Lee Vandel at her home in Moraga for the benefit of Troop 212's summer camp fund. Games played by the 26 women attending also helped build up the fund. The scouts and cubs are also conducting a paper and rag drive for the same reason. This year the scouts plan a two-week pioneer camp in one of the national forests, according to Scoutmaster Paul Foster.

The cubs so badly trounced their mothers last year at softball that this year they have challenged the Camp Fire Girls to a game to be held at the Moraga School diamond Sunday. A family picnic will follow the game.

Mrs. Robert O'Neill, Mrs. Claude Seeds and Mrs. John Shally represented the Canyon Women's Club at the women's civil defense conference at St. Mary's College.

Jewish Temple To Be Visited By P. F. Group

The Pilgrim Fellowship of Orinda Community Church will continue its month's study of "Living Religions of the World" under the guidance of Mrs. Mary Gray of the Pacific School of Religion by visiting Temple Sher-ith Israel at California and Webster Streets, San Francisco, tomorrow.

The young folks, accompanied by Mrs. Gray, Ray Fowler, their leader, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Turk, will leave the church grounds at 8:45 a.m. for the drive to the synagogue.

This is the oldest synagogue in San Francisco, having recently celebrated its 100th anniversary.

The young people will observe the Bar Mitzvah ceremony, in which a boy of 13 is recognized as reaching the age of responsibility and religious duty. Rabbi Morris Goldstein will officiate.

The group will also have the opportunity to go through the temple, on the walls of which are some very fine murals.

50 Brownies 'Fly Up' at Ceremony

At an impressive "Flying-Up" ceremony, all the fourth grade Brownies from Glorietta School were introduced into the world of "tenderfoot" Girl Scouting at the auditorium of Orinda School last night.

The ceremony was a candlelight affair, with almost 50 girls taking part. Cake and coffee were served to the guests afterward by the "tenderfoot" Girl Scouts.

Credit for the success of this affair went to Margaret Tharp, who gave so generously of her time.

Margaret Winters To Present Pupils In Piano Recital

Tilton Land-Use Score Goes Up

The score went up this week for Paul Tilton's land use applications. The Planning commission, after having put the matter over from last week because of neighborhood objection, recommended approval of Tilton's request for a permit for a 10-foot side yard and a 15-foot setback for Lot 21, Moraga Manor, on Orchard Road at the intersection of Valley Drive, an R-A area. The recommendation is to be acted on by the Board of Supervisors.

ANOTHER TILTON application, for five-foot side yards on both sides of Lot 2, Block C, Orinda Oaks, was granted by the supervisors. This property is on Stanton just off Claremont, in an R-S area. The Planning Commission last week gave its nod to the request.

Both these actions occurred Wednesday.

THE SUPERVISORS also granted a permit to Mrs. Howard Hughes to build on a lot less than one acre in area, fronting 56.72 feet on the east side of Minor Road. The lot has 40,619 square feet.

Recommended for approval by the planners were requests of Lawrence Construction Company to have a 13-foot side yard and a 20-foot setback on Lot 50, Moraga Gardens Unit 2, an R-A area, and William P. Harwood for a 20-foot setback from Glorietta Court on Lot 9 and portions of Lots 32 and 33 in Moraga Park, an R-A area.

Ornamental Shrubs Give Real Beauty; Necessary Tasks Are Few and Simple

By BERT WRIGHT

PROPERLY CARED FOR, ornamental shrubs are a real source of beauty on your home grounds. The tasks to be performed in keeping them vigorous and in good form are not many, and they are quite simple.

During the first season, newly planted shrubs must be watered during dry periods. A hose should be turned on the bed and allowed to run slowly until the soil is thoroughly soaked. Or, if you prefer, apply a bucketful of water to each shrub occasionally.

MATURE SHRUBS should be fed in spring and twice again before August 15. One rounded tablespoonful of complete plant food should be worked into each square foot of space around each plant.

Larger bushes, such as lilacs, snowball, spirea, weigela or dogwood, should be fed only once during the summer—in late June. Holes eight to 10 inches deep and one and a half inches in diameter should be made around the bush, in zigzag fashion. Two handfuls of a mixture of half plant food and half soil should be placed in each hole. Afterwards, fill holes with soil and water.

IF TWO OF THE older stems are removed to the ground each year, a shrub may be kept open and bushy and the new growth will be able to develop its normal form. Such shrubs as hydrangeas, honeysuckle, forsythia and privet may be cut back to the ground every so often and new growth thinned to proper form.

WHERE SHRUBS winter—kill there will be much dead wood in the spring. This should be removed.

Those shrubs which bear blossoms on new growth in late spring or summer should be pruned in late winter or early spring. Shrubs which bear blossoms on last year's wood should be pruned soon after blooming.

Still others should be pruned lightly after blooming and again lightly in the spring. Your nurseryman will give you valuable advice on just when you should prune your shrubs.

Mutnick Thanks Voters, Answers Welsh

In a double-barreled statement, Harold E. Mutnick, winner of the Democratic nomination for Assemblyman, thanked voters for their support and answered a last-minute pre-election blast at him by rival candidate Harmon E. Welsh.

"May I take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to the people of Contra Costa County for their expression of faith and confidence in my candidacy for the Assembly in the 10th District," Mutnick said Wednesday.

IN REPLY to a political advertisement by backers of Welsh, which claimed Mutnick had never been employed in the attorney's office of the Veterans Administration and that he does not have the right to practice law before the California State Bar, Mutnick said:

"For the sake of clarifying the record, I wish to state that after leaving military service in 1946, I was employed as an attorney in the capacity of Attorney Reviewer and Adjudicator with the Claims Service of the Veterans Administration Branch Office, 180 New Montgomery, San Francisco, and Veterans Administration District Office, 150 Clay Street, Oakland.

"I SERVED in that capacity until March of this year.

"I have never held myself out to anyone as a practicing attorney at the present time."

Are Closed-door Sessions Being Held Here?

Contra Costa County is the subject of an entire article in the San Francisco Chronicle's series on "Your Secret Government" by Michael Harris. The series, the Chronicle explains, deals with the "problem of government-behind-closed-doors" at the local level in the Bay Area.

The Central Contra Costa Sanitary District, Richmond's two school boards and city council, the Concord City Council and the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors share the spotlight in the article of May 28.

The Concord and Richmond councils get pats on the back for doing their work "in the open," the county board is described as improving in that respect, the Richmond school board (Board of Education and High School Board) are reported as deciding matters "behind closed doors" and the sewer board comes in for some detailed accounts about its executive sessions.

Here are excerpts from Harris' article, entitled "Executive Sessions Are Common in Contra Costa."

NO PUBLIC announcement had been made that the meeting would be held, but a reporter was there. So were a few members of the public who had learned about it somehow.

They were all asked to leave.

Elliott Johnson, chairman of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District, explained that the district's directors were holding "an executive session only." The public would not be allowed to hear the proceedings.

"No action will be taken," Johnson promised.

HALF AN HOUR later Johnson ordered the district's assistant secretary to step into the deserted hallway of the trim little redwood district headquarters on Mount Diablo Boulevard in Walnut Creek. The assistant secretary, at Johnson's order, announced to the empty space that a public meeting was about to begin and anyone who cared to attend might do so.

Making this announcement, it was reasoned, satisfied the legal requirement that the board could take official actions only in public meetings. The board then proceeded to go to work. It voted 3 to 2 to abolish the position of district engineer-manager, the $850-a-month job of James L. Mason.

Mason and Johnson had gotten along badly for some time, but Mason had been able to survive in his job. On this occasion, however, Mason could not defend himself. Johnson drove over to the meeting from his estate in Lafayette, but Mason was absent. He was on leave to the United States Navy.

THE DETAILS of the meeting, which took place on March 25 of this year, did not remain secret for long. Lester Sipes of the Oakland Tribune, who reported Johnson had sent away, got the full story for his paper.

Johnson was asked for a statement by The Chronicle.

"I have no comment to make at all," Johnson replied. "The Chronicle isn't interested in our board, and I don't care to talk about it. What we did you can see in the minutes. I won't discuss what we did behind closed doors."

THIS WAS NOT the first time the board had taken "public" action after sending the public away.

In minutes of the January 18, 1951, meeting show that the board decided to hold an executive session after the close of the meeting to consider the request of Claude M. McPhee, a right-of-way agent, for a salary increase. After voting to hold its next meeting at 8 p.m. February 1, the board adjourned to begin its unofficial, private conference on McPhee's salary.

But the board did not wait until February 1 to hold its next meeting. For the next entry in the minutes reads: "Reconvened meeting of the district board of Central Contra Costa Sanitary District held January 18, 1951."

It was at this meeting that the board voted McPhee a $50 monthly pay raise. No one wanted to endanger McPhee's boost in pay, so there was no protest over the board's procedure in granting it.

But the precedent for this year's action had been set.

THE CONCORD councilmen generally eat dinner together before their meetings start, a matter which could and occasionally does subject them to criticism. They invite one or two newspaper reporters to join them as a guarantee that the meals are in reality star chamber proceedings.

Sheehan (James H. Sheehan) was found in two years as mayor that it takes a good deal of firmness—a quality no one has ever accused him of lacking—to keep public business in the open.

"We've got a lot of people who holler democracy," the mayor said. "But when the chips are down, in cases affecting them, many of them forget all about it."

The contrast between the old and the new is so great that it is a temptation to overlook the fact that some policy matters are settled in closed meetings.

The preliminary budget hearings are closed to the public, for example, although representatives of the Contra Costa Taxpayers Association are permitted to attend.

"CERTAIN POLICIES that come up—for instance, social service matters—are discussed in private," H. L. Cummings of Crockett, chairman of the board said. "If the policies are adopted, they come out in public. We're the directors of a $350,000,000 corporation. Certainly we have a right to discuss policy among ourselves; that's our business."

"But we don't discuss things among ourselves the way we used to. We just agreed that if a matter was of general public interest we would discuss it out in the open."

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

More about the argument for return of the Sacramento Northern R.R. commute trains. Standard gauge the country over is in terms four feet, eight inches, and the S.N.R.R. prior and now has joint trackage with the Key System and other lines. And the Key System is now using old S. P. rails in Berkeley.

As for the hitch about the abandonment of the S. N. tracks on Shafter St., near 49th St., school area, there is a better way out of that. From Shafter St. and College Ave., in Oakland to Claremont Ave. and Forest St. is only 3 blocks, at this point the S.N.R.R. could contact the Key Route Claremont double track line, more direct and quicker than the present route. Of course a franchise would be necessary for the connection, but it would be a splendid route.

There are sections in Los Angeles area on the Watts and Compton lines of the Pacific Electric System where the cars use 600 volts in town and switch to 1200 on high speed territory. This is accomplished simply by the motorman throwing a relay switch in the cab to change circuits.

They must have had this figured out when the S.N. passenger cars formerly used the Key System facilities from 40th and Shafter St., in Oakland, to San Francisco. Or is it possible that ordinary obstacles are now insurmountable in present day railroadage?

The manpower problem is exaggerated. Who ever heard of a fireman on the front end of a street car? The P. E. line, strictly interurban, is run by a motorman only. The conductor does flagman duties.

No double crew is needed. They must know the book of rules and have their watch inspected. This procedure is not a terrific cost.

Further, if the question of 1200 circuit is too much consequence, I am enclosing a picture of what is known as a road diesel electric switcher capable of 70 miles per hour speed with an average train.

This engine needs no trolly wires. In fact, there is one in the Key Route Terminal yards with a trolly pole on it so it can be used either way. And I have seen one of these W.P. switchers operating on the S.N.R.R. at Port Chicago.

Why do not all the transportation clubs get together and make a concentrated yell, so it can be heard? A little yap here and there is not enough. Why not make an issue of the thing?

The Sun has shown a wonderful spirit in this good cause, has broken the ice. Why don't some of the other sheets in this county get off the dime and put a spoke in the wheel?

As a last resort, if all else fails, then try for a joint rail and bus line. But if this plan is considered, go for the transfer point at the end of the Claremont Key line at the Claremont Hotel, Berkeley.

This would give the longest route by rail, eliminating the time lost fighting road traffic to a farther meet downtown.

ORINDA OVERPASS

Why look into the far distance for an unsightly and costly overpass at Orinda? There is an underpass which is better, already built except the hole under the road. If one would care to look, there is a grade for a road on the high east bank of the creek just a little west of the X-Road Inn. Just bore a hole through the road and get going. Get a couple of Los Angeles contractors up here. They have built miles and miles of high speed freeway through the heart of the city going over and under while the freeways up here have been talking about one overpass probably not even in the plan stage yet. Or it may be that the engineers have not been told that an underpass, already two-thirds built, is just as good if not better.

The same condition exists at the Martinez crossroads, another plague spot. It would be easy to go under the highway at a point just east of the present crossing.

IN WALNUT CREEK

A lateral much needed to parallel Main St. and take through traffic away from the congested points in town, can be accomplished without waiting and looking for pie in the sky. Connect the new shopping road past Lucky Market north, using other pieces of jerk roads, and come out east of the new City Hall. Cross Ygnacio, then cut through to Arroyo. This would relieve north and south traffic through town. Eventually this will be done, why not now? Rights of way will cost more later. The Broadway shopping center project has already done the major portion of it.

To Danville off Mt. Diablo Boulevard and from Locust St. can be made short of the crossroads light by turning south, just east of the S.N.R.R. crossing. The streets would need a little readjustment but the traffic would be relieved.

Jury Hands Down Ruling in Roland Roberts Death

A coroner's jury meeting in Walnut Creek Tuesday ruled that Roland Roberts, 51, of 126 Pauline Court, died of injuries suffered when struck by a car driven by Earl R. Stine, 59, of 1012 Willow Drive, Lafayette.

The jury expressed the view that "we further believe that said E. R. Stine was intoxicated."

ROBERTS WAS struck by Stine's car as he walked along Mt. Diablo Boulevard May 23 just outside the Walnut Creek City limits.

Both Stine's car and Roberts were headed west on the highway at the time of the accident. Walnut Creek Police, called in to handle the accident until the Highway Patrol could reach the scene, set time of the accident at 9:10 p.m.

STINE, OAKLAND office manager for the telegraph company, was held by the State Highway Patrol following the auto-pedestrian accident for investigation of manslaughter.

He was arraigned in Port Chicago Justice Court and is awaiting preliminary hearing on the complaint in Judge C. S. Thompson's Walnut Creek Judicial District Court.

'God the Only Cause' Topic of Christian Science

"God the Only Cause and Creator" will be the subject of the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon on Sunday, June 8. The Golden Text has been taken from Malachi: "Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us?" (2:10).

The sermon will be comprised of other citations from the Bible and from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. The Bible citations will include this statement of Jesus to the multitude and to his disciples:

"Call no man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven" (Matthew 23: 9).

A correlative passage from Science and Health will read:

"Jesus acknowledged no ties of the flesh. He recognized Spirit, God, as the only creator, and therefore as the Father of all" (p. 31).

27. He was buried in the Golden Gate National Cemetery in San Bruno.

Surviving is his widow, Mrs. Mae Bell Roberts of Walnut Creek, his brother, Burnett Roberts and his mother, Mrs. Sarah Roberts, both of Concord.

Twenty Girl Scouts to Get Top Awards

Curved Bar Court of Awards for Diablo Valley Area Girl Scouts will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in the Walnut Festival Recreation Building in Walnut Creek. Ten girls will be honored.

Another Curved Bar Court of Awards will be held Tuesday night at 8 at Orinda School for the benefit of eight Orinda girls whose graduation preparations conflict with tonight's ceremony.

CURVED BAR Awards represent specialization in one field of badge work, and only First Class Scouts who have previously earned 12 Proficiency Badges are eligible. Four additional badges in one field are required for a Curved Bar, and girls who have earned them have attained a better-than-average background in their chosen fields.

Misses of ceremonies tonight will be Mrs. Donald Krotz, Principal speaker will be Jeanne Christie, executive director of Girl Scouts in Diablo Valley Area. Rev. D. S. Bennett will deliver the invocation, and Lucia Fredman will sing "The Hymn of Scouting," with Josephine Shoptaugh accompanying. Mrs. George Jensen, council president, will present the awards, and Walter Roberts will provide musical background.

MISSISSIPPI will receive the honors are: Lenore Bitch, Lafayette Troop 26, who has won her Curved Bar in the Flyer field; Betty Clark, Lafayette Troop 40, Sailor; Mary Ann Crossley, Walnut Creek Troop 11, Agriculture; Dianna Ferguson, Danville Troop 11, Business Woman; Virginia Funk, Pleasant Hill Troop 83, Home Maker; Joan Hassal, Danville Troop 24, Play Leader; Nancy Herrmann, Lafayette Troop 26, Flyer; Maurine Marotti, Danville Troop 24, Business Woman; Marianne Simmen, Danville Troop 24, Ambassador, and Pat Carney, Walnut Creek Troop 121.

Two other girls have already received their Curved Bars at a May 12 earlier ceremony at Palmer School. They are Judy Moore and Kathy Wannicke, Troop 25, Palmer School, and both won their awards as Entertainers.

Recently the girls were entertained at two chocolate parties at the home of Mrs. Hermann in Lafayette. Purpose of the parties was to introduce the girls to panel members and acquaint them with work they had done.

Each girl was introduced and then told the most outstanding experience of fact she had learned in earning her award. Mrs. Hermann said this year's work was unusually outstanding.

Also attending the parties were Jeanne Christie, executive director of Diablo Valley Area Girl Scouts, and Mrs. Marge Jensen, council president.

NEW MEMBERS in next year's Dance Group include: Lyala Lynn, Lennie Lamb, Loretta Cook, Carolyn Goforth, Lynne French, Georgiella Duncan, Sharon Cockburn, Carol Costa, Selma Aweaka, and Diane Foster.

"As a rule most students can have only one year of dance because there are so many who want to take the course but this year some girls who tried out for the Dance Group were awarded the special privilege of taking another year."

ELECTIONS HELD Girl's League and Boy's Federation election of officers were held this week. Girls' League officers are: president, Les Hesche; vice-president, Kay Mickel; secretary, Judy Hall; treasurer, Margaret Rose; senior representative, Irene Barrett; junior representative, Carolyn Demeter; and sophomore representative, Jean Galbraith. Others who ran for officers were: Catherine Monroe, June Perry, Nancy Nielson, Sandy Humble, Claudia Mauzy, Marilyn Jeffries, and Marcia Millu.

Boys' Federation officers are: president, Tom Morrish; vice-president, Darrel Crossman; secretary, Ben Randall; and treasurer, Joe Conley.

SWIMMING PARTY Over the weekend John Kistinger gave a swimming party for some of his friends. Among those present were: Wes Ackley and Carol Fletcher, Pat Gates and Ann Sulberger, Denton Holmes and Sally Fleager, Gary Pinella and Pat Meyers, Mart Carivano and Leann Pasquini, Bob Westlund and Bobby

AH: SUMMER VACATIONS After a wonderful three day weekend, I believe that just about everyone is anxiously awaiting the coming of summer vacation.

Most kids just loafed around all weekend, but a few girls I know went to Seibson Beach where they had a wonderful time and got a beautiful tan. (or burn?)

They stayed at Marge Dineen's beach house, and from the way they tell it you'd think there was no better place on earth. Anyway I am sure they had fun as they took equipment for, almost every sport known. The girls who went to the beach were Ginny Supnick, Sandy Schroeder, Betsy Laursen, Paul Garrison, Miss Elsie Wallin, (our gym teacher) plus, of course, Marge Dineen.

FRESHMAN PARTY Another party held over the weekend was given Thursday night for some freshmen. Mary Matlock and Gathy Greub were the hostesses. Among those present were Joyce Scheafer and Jerry Cronchley, Keith Lesure and Pat Kiernan, John Conely and Janice Armstrong and Sarah Tolles and Denis Busby, while Mary and Cathy paired off with Don Ong and Red Jones in that order.

SIESTA PARTY Meanwhile a few blocks away a freshman slumber party was well under way at Roberta Peterson's house. Among those attending were Jane Haworth, Nancy and Sally Strickler, Marcia Millu, Nancy McCrum, Sue Johanson, Donalee Fey.

TENNIS TOURNAMENT Last week the finals in the mixed doubles tournament were played off with Phil Lowthain and Donna Barnette emerging as victors over John Kistinger and Lynn Cowling.

The next day the "Champs" played Mr. MacInerney, tennis team coach, and Miss Walin, girls' tennis teacher. And guess who won? The game was played on the courts during third period, so you can see that little other tennis practice was gotten by the girls who have P. E. that period. At the end of a hard session Phil and Donna were again the champs.

NEW MEMBERS in next year's Dance Group include: Lyala Lynn, Lennie Lamb, Loretta Cook, Carolyn Goforth, Lynne French, Georgiella Duncan, Sharon Cockburn, Carol Costa, Selma Aweaka, and Diane Foster.

Spotlighting the Strip By KITTY COLE If you were part of the bumper-to-bumper crowd on the highways over Memorial day, I'm sure you want to do little driving these days, so why not make this a LOCAL week-end? And here's where to go —

CAPE COD HOUSE is a fish-fancier's dream, and many people say the charming atmosphere only adds to the enjoyment of the fine sea-food. This is the most popular place for luncheon on the strip . . .

DANNY VAN ALLEN still working on it. The new idea, about which I promised you a "coop." Should add to the already flourishing business. DANNY personally "greets and goodbyes" everyone who comes in to his spot. A tireless hand-shaker.

Despite a lucrative offer, MARGE and PAT O'BRIEN succumbed to the pleadings of their many friends and employees, and decided not to sell the EL NIDO RANCHO. Good news, that.

June 6th is LUAU NIGHT at PLANTER'S DOCK, and reservations are pouring in, for this is a fabulous affair. Native foods will be served, everything from pot to pig, lau lau, too. Flowers flown from the Islands. Native dancers and Hawaiian music. Everything to make this a night to remember . . . Finally caught up with song star RUSS ARNO. ## Fey, Borghesani Make All-Star Baseball Team

Dick Fey and Bob Borghesani have been chosen as members of the All-Star squad of the County Team which will face the City-Parochial club in the Oakland Ball Park.

Date has been tentatively set for Saturday, June 14, and will put on display the top talent of the East Bay prep circles.

Joel Heckmann of Crockett, Stan Ceblull of Albany, Doug Killingsworth of Pittsburg, along with Buck Keith and Dave Moore of Diablo were other Contra Costa League players placed on the squad chosen by 30 coaches of the area.

Fey and Borghesani have played four years of high school ball and have rated high in ball, due to their outstanding playing.

Fey has been a catcher in past seasons but was shifted to second this year and has been rated with the best. He hit .327 for the season, batting and throwing right hand. He was first string quarterback in football.

Bob Borghesani rates as one of the best prospects in the horsehide game and hit for a .432 average, to lead the league for the 1952 season.

In addition to baseball, he took honors in basketball, making All-County two years in a row, and was first string tackle in football.

He bats left handed and throws with either hand.

Bob has been the backbone of the pitching staff and has done duty in the infield and outfield.

Both boys are Seniors and graduate June 15.

Inning No. 10 Spells Win Over El Cerrito, 3-2

The Lafayette Legion had to go an extra inning to whip a favored but surprised El Cerrito club in a league tilt at El Cerrito's diamond last Sunday afternoon.

Red Jones was on the mound and notched another win for the Lafayette Legion as he twirled five-hit ball in the 10th inning, while his teammates gathered nine safeties, to account for three runs to El Cerrito's two.

LAFAYETTE JUMPED to an early lead as the leadoff man opened the game with a resounding triple to left and scored when Red Jones laid down a perfect sacrifice bunt.

Isaacs had a big day with the bat, getting four for five. A single in the third resulted in a run when he advanced to third on a steal and pass ball, scoring when Jones laid down another sacrifice bunt.

EL CERRITO made a bid for the win when Dick Kuman, first baseman, scored in the sixth after getting on via an error by Second Baseman, Bob Dwight, and came home when Buzz Ferrarese muffed a ball in right field off the bat of Ray Pendleton.

El Cerrito's big moment came in the ninth when Bob Thompson led off with a home run to right field, tying the game at 2-2.

LAFAYETTE CAME back swinging in the 10th and registered with what proved to be the winning run when Jones singled and went to second on Bob Dwight's single to right field, with Dale Isaacs scampering to third, having singled for his fourth hit of the day.

Bob Barrett had struck out as leadoff man for the inning, and with one away, a squeeze play backfired when Bart Ferro missed an attempted bunt and Isaacs was out at the plate.

Ferro went from the "bum" role to hero in short order, however, as he hit the next pitch to right field to score Jones, giving Lafayette a 3-2 lead.

El Cerrito gave signs of life in its turn at bat when it had two on as the result of an error and a hit.

Jones bore down at this point, striking out Powell and causing the next two would-be hitters to fly out to Center Fielder Jerry Macaulay, who took the ball in stride to end the old ball game.

Jones struck out 11, while 10 Lafayette batters went down swinging at thin air.

Closest Race in Baseball League Ends With Acalanes Tied for Second Place

THE CONTRA COSTA BASEBALL LEAGUE had, as predicted, the closest race since its inception and finally ended up in a two-way tie for first with John Swett of Crockett and Antioch snaring honors, while the Acalanes Dons and Albany ended up in the number 2 spot.

The Dons were off to a flying start when they won five straight only to lose five out of the next seven, to end up with seven wins as against five losses.

All games but two were close and could have gone either way with a single hit, walk or error determining the end result.

THE CALIBER of ball played in the league is getting better with each season. The Dons lose heavily by graduation but have a better than average crop of young players coming up and will have a good nine come next spring.

Antioch rates the favorite at this time with seven out of nine returning, but it's no cinch that they will end up in the number 1 spot.

Being the favorite has its disadvantage in that everyone points for that club and as a result the going is rough.

Often a favorite gets trying too hard to live up to advance notices and ties up mentally and physically.

ONE THING CERTAIN is that the Dons had a most successful season in spring sports.

Varsity track capped the county championship and won the sub-section meet in the North Coast.

Bee track won the county title when it came through to score an upset in the county finals after a mediocre season in duel competition.

Golf had things all its own way, as did tennis, and both hung pennants on the wall.

Varsity and Bee swimmers paddled home winners in the county meet held at Albany.

Acalanes Boys' Nature School Is Summer Plan

A summer school for outdoor minded Acalanes boys is being offered this year by two Acalanes teachers, George Houghton and Wilbur Twining.

The program, called "Sierra Nature School," is designed to teach in a scientific way the natural history of California. A cabin at Twin Lakes, near Bridgeport in Mono County, will be used as a base for the school. Through a series of field trips the boys will become acquainted with the surrounding desert and the alpine natural scene.

The school term will run from August 9 to 24, and the enrollment is limited to 16.

"We hope to present natural history to our students in a manner which is impossible to do in the classroom," Houghton said. "We want the boys to see for themselves the complexities of the great outdoors, and learn from careful scientific observations the marvels of nature."

Further information can be secured from either of the two instructors.

Herrick Hospital Officers Honored

Newly named officers of the 1952-53 Herrick Hospital Clinic Board were honored at a tea recently.

Area residents who are members of the board are Mrs. William B. Freeman of Lafayette, Carl C. Miller of Orinda, and Arthur Westlund of Lafayette.

Legion Nine Wins Title With 4-0 Defeat of Avon

Lafayette Legion Post 517 sponsored a winner as the result of its nine coming through in the game with the Associated club of Avon last Friday at the Acalanes diamond.

The local club posted an impressive 4-0 win to go out in front in the pennant race for the county league for boys 16 and under.

RED JONES was on the mound and all but stood the opposition on their heads as he allowed but one hit and struck out 13 over the seven-inning route, letting but one runner get as far as third base.

Avon held a win over the Lafayette club when they won a 5-4 decision in their first of three games, while the local players evened it up when they won a 4-1 decision at Avon in a second meeting. The Lafayette team cinched the title with the 4-0 win last Friday.

THE LAFAYETTE Legion was out in front early, as it scored two in the opening frame.

Paul Miller got on via the walk route and Red Jones reached first on a fielder's choice after Miller had been sacrificed to second by Jerry Coakley's timely bout. Both Miller and Jones scored on Bart Ferro's single.

Ferro accounted for runs 3 and 4 when he hit a home run with Jones on as the result of a walk in the sixth.

The win gave Lafayette the number 1 spot and with it a large cup and individual awards.

Eastman Heads Stanford Club

Hart Eastman, assistant secretary and manager of the commercial division of the East Bay Municipal Utility District, was elected president of the East Bay Stanford Men's Club at a recent meeting.

Other officers include Marion R. Reich, vice-president; Ray Lewis, treasurer; Oliver D. Hamlin, 750 Old Jonas Hill Road, Lafayette, secretary.

2 Toughies Face Lafayette Legion

The Lafayette Legion nine faces two crucial games this weekend when it tackles two of the league's best.

Tomorrow the lads travel to Richmond to cross bats with a strong Richmond nine that scored an 18-0 win in its only outing in league play, against Walnut Creek Legion.

On Sunday the Concord representatives cross bats with Lafayette. Scene of action is the Acalanes diamond.

Both games are set to start at 1:30 p.m.

Discerning people . . . who appreciate and know fine quality . . . prefer Family Care . . . a full measure of economy.

UP-to-17 Start: Lafayette Nine Beats W. C., 4-1

The Lafayette Legion nine opened league play for boys 17 and under in an impressive fashion last Saturday afternoon at the Acalanes diamond, when they defeated Walnut Creek 4-1.

The Lafayette nine tallied one in the second when Andy Mosen came home from third after Pitcher John Olcott walked Jerry Macaulay with the bases loaded.

MONSEN AND BART FERRO scored in the sixth for Lafayette when Ferro was on as a result of being hit by a pitched ball and Mosen doubled, bringing Ferro in and scoring himself on a fielder's choice and passed ball.

Bob Dwight accounted for run number 4 when he drew a base on balls in the bottom of the seventh, stole second and third and romped home on a wild pitch.

WALNUT CREEK'S lone tally came in the fourth frame. John Champlin was on second when Coakley, the third baseman, overthrew first and Champlin came home as Buzz Ferrarese bobbled a ball in left field off the bat of Benny Edgar.

John Conley was the winning pitcher, giving up but one hit, a single by John Olcott in the seventh, and striking out 10 over the nine innings.

Frank McCann Wins Golf Title

Long driving, par busting Frankie McCann has the Orinda Country Club's 1952 golf championship to his credit, and an impressive new scoring record besides.

McCann, 31-year-old former Stanford University star, won the Orinda club title in his first season as a member by knocking off veteran Ed Foley.

The new champ waltzed in the winner in just 28 holes. He won the contest by a 12 and 10 count, which happens to be the most lopsided result in the event's history.

McCann shot a 34-35-69 on the 36-36-72 links to hold a 10 up lead at the end of 18 holes. After this, it was merely a matter of how many holes it would take to down Foley.

Bill Figi edged Bob Johnson, 1 up, to win the Orinda Flight finale.

Dr. William S. Smith defeated Ridge Greathouse, 4-3, in the first flight. Art O'Kane beat Bill Sheehan, 1 up, in the second flight. George Parker won the third flight with a 2-1 victory over Val Jeltin. Clayton Fish trimmed Johnny Dawson, 3-2, in the fourth flight.
